Railway Bonds-Firm, except for Houston and Texas issues, which were weak and pressure for sale. State Securities-Quiet. The stock market was firm to buoyant throughout the day, and an advance of 1/2 to 21/4 per cent. took place. The b ars made many efforts to check the improving tendency of prices, but met with no success beyond a few reactions. There were free purchases for long account, and considerable shares of leading lines were taken for Western operators. The continued strength of the market induced covering during the afternoon, and buying for this account stimulated the rise, notably in Lackawanna, Delaware and Hudson, Central Pacific, Western Union and Grang rs, all of which were conspicuous features of speculation. There were reports to day of further resumptions by industrial establishments and also of improvement in general business, which were not without their influence. The afternoon rise received an impetus from the bank statement, which, with possibly one or two bank statement, which, with possibly one or two exceptions in the past, was the greatest exhibit ever made by the Clearing douse. The combined increase of specie and legal tenders was over $9,700,000, and a gain in the surplus reserve of $7,623,750, increasing the amount held in excess of legal requirements to $17,644,375, a sum far beyond any requirements to $47,644,375, a sum far beyond any previous excess in the banks. Lackawanna led in the advance. Near the close a reaction of ½ to ½ per cent. took piace, but the market left off firm.

Compared with last night, closing prices were ½ to 2 per cent. higher, except for Northern Pacific preferred and New Jersey Central. which are unchanged, and Reading, which is ½ per cent. lower East Tennessee consols rose from 45½ to 47, and reacted to 45½; de. incomes; advanced 1 per cent. to 12. Dry goods appear to have reached hard pan, as prices continue very firm, and business about equal to the usual trade for this time of the year. Groceries are doing a fair business, and nothing very notable has been developed in prices. Dried fruis and canned goods are quiet, Fish continue dull, Dairy products remain firm.

Boy Prisoners and Their Wives. [New York Herald.]

Five dirty boys, with unkempt hair and ragged clothing, were arraigned before Justice Power in the Yorkville Police Court yesterday morning. They gave their names Shooksey Baker, Jimmy Muldoon "Patsey" White, John Rafferty and "Piggy' Wilson. Four of the prisoners said that they lived at the corner of Forty-third street and First avenue, while Mr. Wilson blandly assured the Justice that he lived on the street. The five boys were accused of steal-'Your Honor," said Baker, the smallest of the captives, "I kin prove an alliby, I kin."

"Go ahead," said Justice Power, undismayed. The boy turned and beckened to a pretty little girl, about fourteen years of age, who sat at the rear of the court room.
She came forward and Justice Power asked what she had to say in her brother's defense. "He isn't my brother," said the girl, "He's my husband. I have a baby home, too." A murmur of astonishment arose from the

"He was sleeping at home," continued the girl, "at the time this robbery was committed on Saturday night." "You can go," said the Justice, and the girl left the Court in company with her fifteen-year-old husband. Muldoon and White, aged thirteen and fourteen respectively, were next arraigned. Another little girl, who represented herself as Mrs. Muldoon, was the witness to prove an "aliby" for her husband. Then a young lady whom Mr. White introduced as his "intended," swore that she was in White's company at the time the shoes were stolen. The two were discharged. Messrs. Rafferty and Wilson were neither married nor engaged, and were held for examination.

Custer and Pierce Young.

[Atlanta Constitution.] There is a good one told by General Pierce Young, which we print in corrected shape. Custer and Young were messmates and classmates, and devoted friends, of West Point. In the war they were major generals of cavalry on opposing sides. One day General Young was invited to breakfast at the Hunter mansion in Virginia. The beautiful young ladies had prepared a smoking breakfast, to which the General was addressing himself with arder, when a shell burst through the house. Glancing through a window, he saw Custer charging toward the house at the head of his staff. Out of the window Young went, calling to the young ladies: "Tell Custer I leave this breakfast for him." Custer onjoyed it heartily, and looked forward with pleasure to the dinner in the distance. In the meantime Young, smartirg over the loss of his breakfast and his hasty retreat, drove the Federal line back. and by dinner time was in sight of the Hunter mansion again. Custer, who was just sitting down to dinner, laughed and said: "That's Pierce Young coming back. I knew he wouldn't leave me here in peace. Rere's my picture-give it to him, and tell him his old classmate leaves his love, with this excellent dinner." And out of the window he went and away like a flash. while the Georgia General walked in and sat down to dinner.

For three years Mr. R. C. Wright, of Gaston, N. C., has been an intense sufferer from rhenmatism. His friend, J. A. Warwick, of Petersburg, Va, writes: "Before the first bottle of Athlophoros was finished he was able to walk, and now goes about all over his farm." In this case, which the friends of Mr. Wright regarded as desperate, a test was made of Athlophoros. It surprised friend and patient by its prompt and thor-ough action on the blood and diseased parts, and won the emphatic opinion that it was truly a specific for rheumatism.

Parnell Doesn't Like Grand Juries. DUELIN, Jan. 10.—Parnell yesterday in thanking the authorities of Cornwell for the honors shown in conferring upon him the freedom of the city, referred to the unrepresentative character of Grand Juries as at present constituted. Their powers, he said, must go to elected bodies who shall represent rate payers. He complained of the unsatisfactory system of education which prevails in Ireland.
